

16/4/19

CHAPTER = 2

Date _____
Page _____

WINDOWS MOVIE MAKER

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING

Q1. What is the use of windows Movie maker Software?

Ans The windows movie maker software is used to create movies by editing few videos and images with the use of some special effect, themes & Transitions.

Q2. Differentiate between title & Caption.
Ans Titles are added to the beginning of the selected clip.

Caption can be added to an individual clip to provide relevant information.

Q3. Write down the steps to insert any media in your project.

Ans Following are the steps to add Photos:-

- Click on Add videos and photos button on Home tab in the add group. dialog box will open.

- Choose picture category from the Library. Folder & select sample picture that are required. Then click on open. The selected photos will appear in story board.
- Select all the images by using the shift key from the sample pic. Click on open and all the images will be imported in iMovie.
- All the imported images are arranged in storyboard pane as a filmstrip.

Q4. Explain the importance of the Trim tool?

Ans. Trim tool is very important as it is used to reduce the duration of a video clip with trim tool.

Q5. What is Transition effect? How it is useful in making a movie?

Ans. Transition effect are the ^{visual} effects which are added to the movie. They are used to add connectivity to the consecutive scenes of a movie.

Q6. How can you export a movie?

Following are the steps to export the movie:

- Click on Home tab → Save movie/presentation in share group. The Save movie dialog box will appear.
- Write the name for saving in file name box. Click on Save button. The M. Maker Processing bar will appear, which will display the progress of the export process.
- After process is movie maker will display dialog box showing that the file is exported and ready to open or play.

Q7. Differentiate between Fade in and Fade out effect.

- Fade in — Fade in option is used to gradually increase the volume of audio in the beginning.
- Fade out — Fade out option is used to gradually decrease the volume of audio in the end.

Pratibha

17/4/19